HEARING THE VOICE OF GOD

Part 1 - The Quest to Connect

Continual conversation with God means that there are moments when God speaks and we listen. Even though it may be scary to think of God speaking to us, it is normal and not weird.

~ Jan Johnson

Being close in a relationship takes time and effort—even when it's with the Lord.

~ Anne Cetas

God is infinitely patient. He will not push himself into our lives. He knows the greatest thing he has given us is our freedom. If we want habitually, even exclusively, to operate from the level of our own reason, he will respectfully keep silent. We can fill ourselves with our own thoughts, ideas, images and feelings. He will not interfere.

~ M. Basil Pennington

I fear that many people seek to hear God solely as a device for securing their own safety, comfort and righteousness.

~ Dallas Willard

Why is it that when we talk to God we're said to be praying, but when God talks to us we're schizophrenic?

~ Lily Tomlin

oxygen.

~ Jan Johnson

O God, you are my God;
I earnestly search for you.

my whole body longs for you
in this parched and weary land where there is no water.

~ Psalm 63:1 (NLT)

Today I continue to believe that people are meant to live in an ongoing conversation with God, speaking and being spoken to.

~ Dallas Willard

Members of a sports team want to win the championship game, not simply read about another team's success. In the same way, we do not just want to read a theological description about God; we want to experience God in our lives.

~ Terry L. Brensinger

It is God's desire to walk and communicate with His children. He longs for you to hear His loving, distinct voice.

~ Larry Kreider

“Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends.

~ Jesus (Rev 3:20 NLT)
