

Part 6: The Power of Questions

All Christians must be ready and able to give a reasonable defense of their faith. They need not be apologists or theologians, but every Christian ought to be able to clearly explain his or her own reasons for being a Christian.

~ Linda K Taylor
Life Application New Testament Commentary

We can present a defense of the Christian faith without becoming defensive. We can present arguments for Christianity without becoming argumentative.

~ William Lane Craig
*On Guard: Defending Your Faith
With Reason and Precision*

My goal is modest. I want to put a stone in the person's shoe. I want to get him thinking. I want him to consider listening to Jesus first before dismissing him. If I can simply open that door, I have accomplished something important.

~ Greg Koukl
Tactics: A Game Plan for Discussing Your Christian Convictions

Evangelism is never proclaimed in a vacuum, but always to people, and the message must be given in terms that make sense to them.

~ Michael Green
Evangelism in the Early Church

The medium is the message.

~ Marshall McLuhan
Understanding Media: The Extensions of Man

Always be ready to give a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you. However, do this with gentleness and respect.

~ The Apostle Paul
