

Part 1: Giving to the Cause of the Gospel

Part 2: Spending Less to Give More

Part 3: Working as Worship

Money is a miraculous thing. It is your personal energy reduced to portable form and endowed with power you do not possess. It can go where you cannot go; speak languages you cannot speak, lift burdens you cannot touch with your fingers; save lives with which you cannot deal directly.

-- Harry Emerson Fosdick

It is God's vision that people everywhere experience reconciliation, healing, and hope. Money can be a tool toward that end.

-- Edwin Friesen, MFC Consultant

Stewardship is not just a financial add-on, it's not just an appendix in the life of discipleship. Our resources (time, talents, and money) fuel the engine that helps the church carry out God's mission.

-- Wally Kroeker, Financial Consultant

As stewards, we are called to manage God's gifts for the good of all. Whether in aid, advocacy, education, or development, we can make a difference and bring the world a little closer to what God intended.

-- Edwin Friesen, MFC Consultant

God asks us to regularly give a portion of our income back to God as acts of worship and thanksgiving. This practice will keep our hearts focused on God and lead to a life of contentment and generosity.

-- Edwin Friesen, MFC Consultant

Financial freedom begins with freedom from the expectation that money can meet psychological needs.

-- Robert J. Veitch

Life is not measured by how much you own.

-- Jesus (Luke 12:15)
